

30+ Retention Scheme: Comprehensive Scheme Review 2008

The 30+ scheme arose from the Police Negotiating Board Agreement of May 2002 and gives police forces the opportunity to retain personnel with valuable skills and experience which would otherwise be lost to retirement. It does so by offering police officers the opportunity to take advantage of an early tax-free lump sum payment while continuing to serve as an attested officer at the same rank and pay level as before. This measure was introduced in order to reduce mass retirement, avoid recruitment bulges and address potential skills shortages that would have resulted from this.

The scheme was given approval by Ministers and HM Treasury to run until 31 March 2010, when it is due to be closed to new entrants. However, an increasing number of late joiners to the police service, the higher compulsory retirement ages (CRAs) introduced in October 2006 and the growing cohort of members of the New Police Pension Scheme (2006) that must now accrue 35 years service before receiving a maximum pension have all been factors that have potentially reduced the operational need for this scheme in recent years. These factors, amongst others, may mean that we need to consider closing the scheme before 2010 subject to the outcome of this review.

In order to evaluate the continued effectiveness of the scheme we have produced this questionnaire to assess the way in which the scheme has been operated since its pilot in 2002. We kindly ask that you complete it in full. We appreciate that some of the information may not be readily available but the information required is vital to helping us make the correct decision regarding the continuation of this scheme. If you have any queries about any of the questions, please do not hesitate to call or email us.

19. How have retirement patterns changed since the introduction of the scheme? Please complete the table below with the information relating to the period before the scheme was piloted in 2002 and the last 12 months (1 March 2007 to 29 February 2008 inclusive).

	Last 12 months	2002
Average retirement age	49	n/k
Average length of service upon retirement	27	27
Percentage of officers who retired upon reaching maximum pension benefits	66	72
Percentage of officers retained in specialist roles with more than 30 years service (including those on 30+ and not)	n/k	n/k

20. How many officers in your force are likely to become eligible to retire with maximum pension benefits over the next three years?
2008/09: 29                      2009/10: 25                      2010/11: 28
21. Are you planning to keep the scheme open to new entrants until 2010? yes
If not, please give your reasoning behind this decision, and state when you anticipate this to take effect:
22. If your force intends to keep operating the scheme, what effect would it have on your force if the scheme was to be centrally closed to new entrants...
a) now? Some - we currently have 1 application to commence as a 30 plus officer in October 2008.
or
b) in 2010? Little/nil - only 1 current serving 30 plus officer would still be within his 4 year appointment if scheme closed in 2010 (potentially 2 if current application being considered is accepted)
23. What plans do you have for phasing out those accepted onto the scheme?
No plans in place
24. Beyond 2010, do you foresee a shortage of skilled and experienced officers, and if so, what plans do you have to deal with your operational needs for retaining valuable skills and experience?
None identified presently
25. Overall, how would you summarise your experience with the scheme since its introduction?
Generally, the scheme has been unpopular and there has been very little take-up in this Force. Additionally, it requires disproportionate amount of administrative effort for numbers re-engaged on the scheme.
26. Any other comments?
