Dear Mr Bell,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2020/00290

I am writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 29 May 2020, which I am dealing with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email you have requested the following information:

Could you please supply a copy of the current Grant Funding Agreement between Post Office Limited and NFSP Limited, including any amendments or changes since the original agreement in 2015.

I can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested. Please find a copy of the documents you have requested attached.

However, Post Office believes that some of the information contained within the documents is the personal data relating to a third party. In this respect, we rely on the exemption contained in section 40(2) of the FOIA, concerning personal information.

Personal Information

We believe the disclosure of this information would contravene data protection principles – disclosing such information would be likely to breach the principle of fair and lawful processing. As such we have released the copies but redacted information we believe identifies third parties.

Public Interest

Post Office acknowledges the general public interest in transparency and accountability. However, disclosure of personal information would not serve the interests of the public as it does not relate to the provisions of public services or decisions directly affecting the public.

If you have any queries about this response, please contact me. Do remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

I hope the information I have provided on this occasion is useful, however if you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address below stating your reasons for your internal review request.
