Dear R Harrison

Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 20 November 2017. You made the following requests for information:

I have been informed that consultation packs on the proposed High Conflict Pathway have been sent out to various external parties.

Please provide a list of any and all external parties that you are consulting with on this new pathway.

As the pathway is a Cafcass tool there will not be a formal consultation on the pathway. Cafcass are planning to contact a range of stakeholders, such as the judiciary, lawyers, academics, therapists, and men's and women's groups to set out clear information about the process for obtaining feedback. However no groups or external parties have been contacted yet in regards to their views on the pathway.

Please provide a copy of the consultation pack.

Cafcass has not produced a consultation pack for the High Conflict Pathway as Cafcass is not having a formal consultation on the pathway.

For more information about the pathway please see our website.

We hope that you feel your question has been answered effectively. If you are unhappy with the decisions made in relation to your request, you may ask for an internal review to be undertaken. If you are dissatisfied with the way the internal review is handled or with the
