32 [redacted] Police Child Cruelty III	33 [redacted]	34 [redacted] Likely media interest	2013080002307	23/09/2013	Along with the Thames Valley Police, in FOI "Police Child Cruelty II" the Metropolitan Police appear to have little interest in, providing the principle child protection measure of deterrence in the criminal law. https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/police_child_cruelty_ii?post_redirect=1#describe_state_form_1 The service appear to be indifferently continuing their identical failing as occurred in the case of Peter Connelly in Haringey (Baby) over five years ago. Under section 1(8)(h) of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 the police and crime commissioner must hold the Chief Constable to account for the exercise of the latter's duties in relation to safeguarding children under sections 10 and 11 of the Children Act 2004. However, there is no such such commissioner for the Metropolitan Police. Please can you supply the equivalent office or officer for the MPS, if any, and the means by which we may contact and advise him of the MPS's long standing indifference to its responsibilities for children's safety and the trafficking of children for sexual exploitation by groups and gangs.

I do realise that Richmond Police Station has now effectively closed down apart from taking in miscreants.
