Dear Mr Whenman,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your request for documents drawn up or revised in 2006-7 relating to HM Government's plans should the monarch withhold his or her assent to a government bill or to any other parliamentary bill. The Cabinet Office received your request on 5 August 2009 and I have dealt with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I have carried out a search of our electronic and paper records and I have found no information relevant to your request. I have, therefore, concluded that the Cabinet Office does not hold any information relevant to your request.

If you are unhappy with the decisions made in relation to your request from the Cabinet Office you may ask for an internal review. If you wish to do so you should contact:

> Sue Gray
> Director
> Cabinet Office
> 70 Whitehall
> London
> SW1A 2AS
>
> Email: foiteam@cabinet-office.x.gsi.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after a response was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
