

Agenda

9:00 Arrival, registration and refreshments (Tea & Coffee)

10:00 - 11:00 Welcome and introduction (Holte Suite) – [redacted]

Keynote address (Holte Suite): [redacted]

11:00 - 11:15 Movement to workshops/ sessions

11:15 - 12:15

Holte Suite

Stalking workshop

Led by the PSG Stalking network [redacted]

- Launch of the PSG Stalking Strategy
- Stalking – our next steps in PSG
- Regional Stalking networks and our SPOCs; how we can help support PSG activity

Directors Suite

CFT: Compassion - what is it and how can it help us in forensic work

Led by [redacted]

This session will be provide an introduction to compassion, its evolutionary theoretical basis and applications to forensic work. It will give practical tips for incorporating compassion into our everyday work including risk assessment and formulation. This session is best suited to those new to or inexperienced in compassion in forensics

McGregor's Suite

Research symposium 2

[redacted]
Providing personal computers for prisoners

[redacted]
Characteristics of Technology Assisted Adolescent Dating Abuse (TAADA) perpetrators: A Rapid Evidence Assessment

[redacted]
A quantitative study examining 30 years of UK prison hostage incidents.

Lion Suite

Research symposium 1

[redacted] Targeting and Evaluating a Behavioural Monitoring Process Designed to Improve the Risk Management of Prisoners in the Open Estate

[redacted]
Evaluation of a pilot project using EM during the ROTL process.

[redacted]
There is no relevant literature on underlying reasons of recall for women

Heineken Club

Administration workshop:

- GROW (Get Ready for Opportunities at Work)
- Transformative Thinking and Practice Inspiring you to be your best!

12:15 - 13:30	Lunch (Holte Suite entrance)
13:30 - 14:30	Keynote address (Holte Suite): [REDACTED], Exeter University: Brain Injury in Forensic Populations - a live recording of the Forensic Psychology Podcast
14:30 - 15:00	Refreshments (Tea & Coffee) Please be in your next room for 15:00
15:00 - 15:50	Holte Suite A Celebration of the role of Psychology in Accredited Programmes Co-Led by PSG and IS including: [REDACTED] A focus on how applied psychology is embedded in everything we do in programmes (design, implementation, evaluation) covering intervention science and considering how important psychologists' contributions to AcPs are.	Directors Suite Safety Symposium:  Led by: [REDACTED] This session will enable PSG colleagues to discuss the priority safety issues in HMPPS and our PSG approach, within, for example: Prisons of concern (UN/PPSP/high levels of assault), Suicide prevention, Digital options / innovations for safety related content, Safety culture in prisons and Staff support.	McGregor's Suite Research symposium 3 [REDACTED] Imprisonment for Public Protection (IPP) Sentenced Prisoners: An Exploratory Qualitative Study of Parole Board Members Decision Making [REDACTED] Empathy Experience in Young People and Prison Staff: A Qualitative Exploration of Young People and Prison Officers' Experiences of Empathy in a Custodial Setting.	Lion Suite Research symposium 4 [REDACTED] The decision to transition from a male to a female gender in custody by people with sexual convictions (PwSC) [REDACTED] Supervision and Racial Differences: A Rapid Evidence Assessment (REA)	Heineken Club Administration session:  Laughter therapy Workshop
16:00 - 16.15	Closing remarks (Holte Suite) - [REDACTED]				