Dear J Roberts

Thank you for your email of 11 August, in which you ask

Please provide all of the information you are required to disclose following the FTT decision Home Office v IC & JCWI (EA/2020/0253):

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I am able to disclose the following information enclosed within the attached pdf file.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to foirequests@homeoffice.gov.uk, quoting reference 65548. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

As part of any internal review the Department's handling of your information request would be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response. If you were to remain dissatisfied after an internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the FOIA.

A link to the Home Office Information Rights Privacy Notice can be found in the following link. This explains how we process your personal information: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/information-rights-privacy-notice>

Yours sincerely

Home Office Legal Advisers, 2 Marsham Street, London SW1P 4DF.
