

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	Phil Rogers
What was the gift or hospitality?	CTFG Game - vs - Portsmouth FC Ticket only.
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£20-00.
Who provided it?	Crawley Town Football club.
When and where did you receive it?	Sunday 9 September 2012 - Broadfield Stadium.
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?	No hospitality received after election.
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Provided an opportunity to review parking and security (match day) provision
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	Yes
Signed	Date 10/9/12.

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	Lee Harris
What was the gift or hospitality?	Match ticket including lunch and half time refreshments for Crawley Town v Peterborough Town as part of the Deputy Mayor's party
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	Estimated at £60
Who provided it?	Crawley Town FC
When and where did you receive it?	At the Broadfield stadium on 21 July 2012
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?	Yes
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?	Yes
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	I was part of the Mayor's party that presented a gift to the Club on its promotion from League 2 to League 1
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	Yes
Signed	Date 10 Sept 2012

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	Phil Rogers.
What was the gift or hospitality?	CTFG Game - vs - Peterborough JTB. Ticket & Hospitality
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£60
Who provided it?	Crawley Town Football Club.
When and where did you receive it?	Saturday 21 July 2012 Broadfield Stadium
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Deputy Mayor to make a formal presentation on behalf of the Council in recognition of the Club's recent achievements
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	yes
Signed	 Date 7/8/12.

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name
What was the gift or hospitality?	Hospitality
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£60.00
Who provided it?	Crawley Town Football Club
When and where did you receive it?	21 July at Crawley Town Football Club
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?	Yes
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?	No
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Mayoral visit to first match of the season
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	Yes
Signed	Date 27 July 2012

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	PHIL ROGERS
What was the gift or hospitality?	CTFC GAME - vs - Northampton Town Ticket, tea and biscuits
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£50
Who provided it?	Crawley Town Football Club.
When and where did you receive it?	Tuesday 17 April 2012 Broadfield Stadium
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Opening of new stand and floodlights - CBC As off.
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	yes.
Signed	Date 19/4/12

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	PHIL ROGERS
What was the gift or hospitality?	Ticket for football match - including breakfast
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£100-
Who provided it?	Crawley Town Football Club.
When and where did you receive it?	Sunday 19 February 2012. At Football Stadium.
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?	yes
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	5th round FA Cup & was attending with the Mayor, Council Leader and Portfolio Holder.
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	yes
Signed 	Date 26/3/12.

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	Lee Harris
What was the gift or hospitality?	Match ticket and hospitality for Crawley Town FC v Stoke City FC in the FA Cup at the Broadfield stadium
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£100.00
Who provided it?	Crawley Town FC to the Mayor of Crawley I was invited as part of the Mayor's party.
When and where did you receive it?	At the Broadfield stadium, Crawley on Sunday 19 February 2012
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?	Yes
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?	Yes
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Yes – this was the first time that Crawley Town FC has hosted a Premier League Club at the Broadfield stadium.
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	Yes
Signed 	Date 29 February 2012

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.

Officer's Declaration of Receipt of Gifts or Hospitality

Name	[REDACTED]
What was the gift or hospitality?	TICKET TO STOKES GAME including Meal
What is your best estimate of its market value or cost?	£100.00
Who provided it?	CRADLY TOWN Football Club
When and where did you receive it?	Sunday 19 February
Does it come within one of the categories of gifts or hospitality listed as 'acceptable' in the Employee's Code of Conduct (in the Council's Constitution)?	YES
Did you take advice from the Monitoring Officer before accepting it?	No
Were there any special circumstances justifying acceptance of this gift or hospitality?	Yes - Part of Mayor's Party
Do you have any contact with the person or organisation providing the gift or hospitality in your role as a member of the Council's staff?	YES
Signed [REDACTED]	Date 20 MARCH 2012

Completed form to be submitted to the Monitoring Officer who will maintain a record of declarations.