Dear Mr Perrin

Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 14 June requesting information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

While the DVLA may hold the information you have asked for, the DVLA is considering whether the information is exempt from disclosure under the following exemptions:

Section 31(1)(a) & (b) – Law enforcement

That is, information may be exempt from disclosure if it falls within the category of information where disclosure would or would be likely to prejudice (a) the prevention or detection of crime and (b) the apprehension or prosecution of offenders.

In applying the above qualified exemption, the DVLA is required to consider the public interest for disclosure against the public interest for withholding the information. As provided for in section 17(2) of the Freedom of Information Act, the DVLA is considering the public interest test for the above exemption and will let you know the outcome no later than 12 August.

Yours sincerely
