Dear Katherine Scaife,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (Fol) request received on 8 June. You wrote:

“How many women born in the 1950s have died waiting for their state pensions after their 60th birthdays ?”

DWP Response

Following a search of our paper and electronic records, we have established that the information you requested is not held by this Department.

You might be interested to know that the Office of National Statistics (ONS) publishes statistics on deaths in England and Wales here, and statistics on deaths in Scotland are published by the National Records for Scotland (NRS) here.

Should you require any further information on these statistics, information on how to submit a freedom of information request to ONS can be found here and to NRS can be found here.

You might be interested to know that you can find information on State Pension Age timetable, based on gender and date of birth, here.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us quoting the reference number above.

Yours sincerely,

DWP Central Freedom of Information Team
Department for Work and Pensions

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act

If you are not happy with this response you may request an internal review by e-mailing freedom-of-information-request@dw.gov.uk or by writing to: DWP Central FoI Team, Caxton House, 6-12 Tothill Street, London, SW1H 9NA.

Any review request should be submitted within two months of the date of this letter.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted our own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.
