Dear Susan Gordon,

Freedom of Information request – RFI20201429

Thank you for your request to the BBC of 12 September 2020 seeking the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

“How much did you spend on toilet roll in between 2014-2019 broken down by year?”

Under section 1(1) of the Act, we can confirm that the BBC does not hold this information. Toilet paper is not purchased directly by the BBC but by our facilities management contractor. It is covered by contractor’s unitary charge to the BBC and cannot be broken down as a line item.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. A request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of receiving the BBC’s response to your original request.

If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF, Tel: 0303 123 1113 or see <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,
