Dear Mr Dexter,

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 190112003

Thank you for your request dated 12 January 2019 in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

Please could you supply the prison canteen price list for HMP North Sea Camp, Boston.

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

I confirm the MoJ holds this information and can provide it to you in the enclosed document. The information provided is the Canteen Sheet at HMP North Sea Camp for week 13th to 19th January 2019.

I apologise that some of the text in the document is of poor quality. To be helpful I have provided the text at the bottom of each page below:

“All prices include VAT. All reasonable precautions are taken to ensure that prices, product details, offers and dietary information are correct at the time of printing, but [it] may be subject to change (including statutory tax and duty charges) or material error and no guarantees can be given. Consumers are advised to check products and product labels on receipt to ensure they meet their requirements. HMPPS will use the personal data on this order form only to process your order for the items you have selected, where it needs to comply with a legal obligation and where it is necessary for HMPPS legitimate interest (or those for a 3rd party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override these interest[s]. HMPPS will share your personal information only with DHL as part of processing your order unless required to do so by law. Further information about how HMPPS complies with data protection law and your rights is available on request.”

You may be interested to know that after consultation with prisons and prisoner forums, prisoners now have a much-expanded range of products available to them with, on average, 600 per establishment. There will be some variations between prisons on the grounds of security and diversity, but the vast majority of the products on the National Product List are now available to the prison population. Prices are set at no higher than the recommended retail price. You may be interested to know that the Canteen Sheet at HMP North Sea Camp is updated on a weekly basis.
