Dear Thomas George Lyon,

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA)

Thank you for your request for information, received by Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service (SCTS) on 16 March 2023 in which you have requested a copy of a transcript of your trial.

The SCTS does try where possible to provide the information requested, however on this occasion I must give notice in terms of section 17 of FOISA that this is not information which the SCTS holds.

By way of explanation, the case in question was a summary criminal matter. Please note that summary criminal cases of this nature are not recorded therefore I can advise that there would be no transcript held in respect of this case.

I am sorry I cannot be of further assistance. However, should you feel dissatisfied with this response or the manner in which your request has been handled, the Act provides for a review process to be conducted. Should you wish to take advantage of this process you may apply in writing for a review. Your request should provide details of why you wish a review to be carried out and should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter to:-

The Freedom of Information Officer
Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service
Saughton House
Broomhouse Drive
Edinburgh
EH11 3XD

Following that review should you still feel dissatisfied, you have the right to lodge an appeal with the Scottish Information Commissioner either online:
