Harry,

In response to your query below, the College of Policing is content to share their new modern slavery e-learning package, in principle. Sharon Stratton will arrange a meeting to demonstrate the new e-learning package, ensuring that the Home Office Modern Slavery Unit, NCA S.40(2), IBPD S.40(2), IASC's office S.40(2) and NPL's office S.40(2) are amongst those invited.

This will be arranged shortly.

Kind regards,

Fazeelat (on behalf of Sharon)

Harry,

The person who could best advise you on College training in the area of modern slavery is Sharon Stratton, the Policing Standards Manager for public protection.

Sharon, could you kindly advise Harry re: the training queries below?

Many thanks,

Fazeelat

Sorry to bother you, I am not sure if you are the correct person to contact or not, if not perhaps you could point me in the right direction.

The Independent Anti-Slavery Commissioner, Mr Hyland, is keen to establish, what if any mandatory training that law enforcement agencies receive on Modern Day Slavery and Trafficking. Is there an Ncalt package that all officers have to view and pass?

Is there separate training given to investigating officers and senior investigating officers.

Have any forces adopted training within this field that has been accredited by the College of Policing, or is this done on an ad hoc basis from force to force. If this is the case are you aware of courses that have received a good reaction.

If there is no mandatory training has any been considered and/or being prepared.

Obviously Mr Hyland is keen to promote this area of policing and feels that awareness needs to be improved, throughout all ranks within law enforcement.

Thanks for all your help.
