Dear Angela

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email received 21 June 2017 requesting the following information:-

“Can you please confirm where if online and which newspaper(S) you advertise all your public notice, including planning TROS Path Diversion to name a few.

If your enforcement register is available online and if not ascertain how many planning enforcement notices(all) were served in 2016/17 and details of references and addresses

If your tros are available to view online.”

Our obligation

The Council is treating your request as having been made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “Act”).

When dealing with requests for information, the Council’s obligations include:

- (1) confirming or denying whether it holds information of the description specified in the request; and
- (2) Communicating the information requested to the applicant. You should note that this is effectively a decision that the information can be released into the public domain and not simply to the specific applicant.

Under the Act, the Council is required to release any information that it holds to you unless an exemption applies.

Response to your request

I confirm the information you have requested is held and I am able to give you the following:-

Public Notices for planning applications are not advertised online. The newspapers we use are:-

Ripley & Heanor News
Belper News
Derby Evening Telegraph
Derbyshire Times

TROS Path Diversions are dealt with by Derbyshire County Council. If you have not already done so, you can email them at contactcentre@derbyshire.gov.uk or telephone Call Derbyshire on 01629 533190. That being the case, in accordance with section 1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the information you seek is not held by this authority.

The Council's Enforcement Register is not available on line, however, please see the attached document.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you may ask the Council for an internal review of the decision within 20 working days. Someone other than the person who took the initial decision will conduct the internal review. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Civic Links and FOI Officer at the above address. If, following the internal review, you are still not happy with the outcome; you have the right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliff House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF
Tel: 01625 545 745
Fax: 01625 524 510
Email: mail@ico.gsi.gov.uk

If you have any further queries, please contact me either in writing at the above address or by telephone on 01773 841601 and quote your ID No 288/17.

To help us to improve the quality of our responses to future Freedom of Information requests, any feedback you may have on this response would be appreciated. A copy of the Council's Customer Comments leaflet is attached to assist you.

Yours sincerely

Joan D Jones (Mrs)
Civic Links & FOI Officer
