Hi both,

Shall we make it 3.30pm, if that helps to free up calendars? I would need to finish by 4pm for another meeting.

Thanks [REDACTED]

Good morning [REDACTED]

Thanks so much for your introductory email and very interesting to read your employment and sporting background.

I'm also copying in my colleague [REDACTED] in case you are not already in contact. My role is internally focussed on the staff side and [REDACTED] is externally focussed working across sports organisations and projects for LGBT+ and BAME advancing equality. [REDACTED] and I also work closely together for example we are working towards this year's Stonewall Workplace Index.

It would be great to arrange a call within the next few weeks – do you have any dates in mind, ideally Mon-Wed as I work part-time?

I look forward to us working together.

Kind regards

Good Afternoon [REDACTED]

Hope you are well!

My name is [REDACTED] and I write to you today to introduce myself as your new [REDACTED] at Stonewall. I understand from [REDACTED], your previous [REDACTED], that you are working closely with our Sports Team currently and I am excited to be continuing this pivotal work with you for the foreseeable future.

To give a brief introduction of myself, I started at Stonewall on the 29th of April after having worked as an Advocate for people with complex mental health and substance abuse problems for the past year. Previously, I have worked with Refugee and Immigrant youth, in Poverty Law and Legal Aid clinics, and have a wealth of experience in the sport sector as an athlete, coach, volunteer, employee, and spectator. Most of all, I am excited to be continuing the journey of making sport for everyone with you!

If you have any questions, please do feel free to reach out to me over email. If possible, I think we should arrange a time within the next few weeks to have a chat on the phone as there are some exciting sports related events coming up on the horizon that I would love to discuss with you.

Look forward to hearing from you!

Best Regards,
