Head of Events and Ambassadors, [REDACTED]

Pronouns: She/her

20-26 October was Ace Week, a celebration and a way to increase awareness of asexual people and their experiences. We spoke our very own [REDACTED], Head of Events and Ambassadors and Chair of Stonewall's Ace Network about why this week is so important.

“Ace Week is such an important time for visibility for people on the asexual spectrum. We know from the National LGBT Survey that ace people are the least likely to be open about their orientation and also have the lowest life satisfaction score for cis identities. It’s only through initiatives such as Ace Week, raising awareness and celebrating ace identities, that we can start making things better for ace people.”
