Dear [REDACTED],

Yesterday you may have accidentally received an email from us regarding our MP action.

We sent the email to more people than intended as it was only meant to go to people who had taken the MP action in support of trans equality.

If you have not taken the action, please ignore our previous email.

For those of you who took the action and received a reply from their MP, please fill in the questionnaire.

If you still want to take action in England, Wales or Scotland – feel free to do so.

We apologise for the confusion.

Many thanks,

Stonewall Campaigns team
