Stonewall turns 30 today!

On 24 May 1988 a new piece of legislation called Section 28 was passed, posing a major threat to LGBT equality. It effectively banned conversations about same-sex relationships in schools and forced many LGBT teachers into the closet or out of a job. It deprived LGBT young people of role models and scarred generations.

Exactly a year later, we were founded to fight this discrimination.

Over the last 30 years we have achieved so much together. This is why we are taking time to reflect on some of the key moments for LGBT people and their families – everything from marriage equality to LGBT inclusive education.

Celebrate with us

What LGBT moment has meant the most to you in the last 30 years?

Share your moment by using the hashtags #LGBTmoment and #Stonewall30 to join in the celebrations today!

We also have a few surprises throughout the summer. Keep an eye out tonight on Channel 4 as we air an exclusive Stonewall advert after Gogglebox and just before The Last Leg.

While the fight for LGBT equality is far from over, let's take a moment to celebrate today. Together we will achieve acceptance without exception for all LGBT people.

Thank you for everything you do to support us.

Stonewall

P.S Don't forget to share the LGBT moment that means the most to you by using the hashtags #LGBTmoment and #Stonewall30
