

Trans Allies - Trans Awareness Week

Mon 29/10/2018 12:28

To:

Good afternoon all.

I hope you are all well.

I wanted to drop you an email as you attended the Trans Allies training run by Stonewall earlier this year.

We are looking to hold a follow up session to this during Trans Awareness week, which falls week commencing 12th November 2018. The aim is to answer any questions you may still have in becoming a better Trans ally, to share any good practice that has happened following this training and to also pledge our support via social media.

The details for this session are as follows:

Date: Tuesday 13th November 2018

Time: 1.30pm - 3.00pm

Location: Nantgarw Campus, room ND334

Teas and coffees will be provided.

I should be grateful if you would confirm if you are able to attend by return of email, by no later than Friday 9th November 2018.

If you have any queries regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

Hi [REDACTED],

"We're proud of the work we do with trans communities to fight for trans equality. It's central to our goal for every lesbian, gay, bi and trans person to be accepted without exception. Trans people are currently facing horrific levels of harassment and abuse in their daily lives. It's a situation none of us should accept."

Ruth Hunt, Stonewall Chief Executive

If you agree, speak up now. It takes just a few minutes to show your support for reform of the Gender Recognition Act so that it can benefit all trans people. There are just ten days until the consultation closes – so please, don't put it off, respond today.

"Media coverage of trans people has been toxic. It's deliberately confusing, raises groundless fears and misrepresents UK equality law. It's trying to roll back access to services for trans people." Read about why Gender Recognition Act reform matters to Hilary.

Respond to the consultation now

At a time when trans people face so much hostility, every voice in support of trans rights counts. Thank you.
