Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for getting in touch, there's lots of ways to celebrate Pride.

This year we've been promoting Equali-tea's as a great simple way to both celebrate Pride and our own 30th birthday year. Here's a link for more information <https://www.stonewall.org.uk/get-involved/get-involved-fundraise-us/hold-equali-tea-and-raise-vital-funds-lgbt-equality>.

We also have a big campaigning push regarding GRA reform for trans people, details here <https://www.stonewall.org.uk/our-work/campaigns/come-out-trans-equality>, direct action like engaging allies to write to their MPs is incredibly important. We've had some DCs for example run letter writing events to promote the issue and collate efforts. We need to remember Pride is both a celebration and still a protest as there is still so much work left to be done, especially as it relates to trans people and GRA reform is a key piece of legislative change needed for trans people to be able to actualise their identities in all areas of civic life.

Looking at external general activities I found Pride in London's page quite good <https://prideinlondon.org/events/> for events in and around London.

Hope that helps and I'll give Mark a nudge to say hi.

Subject: Pride ideas

[REDACTED] hi,

I don't want to take up too much time but wondered if you/someone at Stonewall had any ideas for how we can mark Pride this year at work.

I wondered if Stonewall was organising/ knew about any exhibitions which we might be able to visit from work as a social.

Or of any other events which we might be able to visit as a group of colleagues from work.
I was thinking of looking into some of the museum/gallery visits that are LGBT themed.

I've invited people to come and watch the march with me.

(Also please say hi to [REDACTED] who has just joined Stonewall. He is head honcho of the chorus I sing with).

Thank you and best wishes,

Hi [REDACTED]

Many thanks for confirming the date and time for our first meeting. Could I double check we will be meeting at 1 Drummond Gate? It's not always a given with government depts and agencies so always best to check.

Dear [REDACTED]

I'm [REDACTED] and I'll be managing your account going forward.

I manage a team of client account managers and in addition I work with the vast majority of our governmental departments and agencies. I'm still relatively new to Stonewall but I've worked in D&I for over half a decade and prior to that worked in the LGBT sector in a number of roles ranging from community development through to victim support service delivery.

It'd be great to arrange an introduction meeting to discuss National Savings and Investments diversity and inclusion strategy in relation to LGBT people and how Stonewall can support you going forward.

To that end I've attached a Findtime poll with some availability for a 90 minute meeting, we may not need all that time but I'd rather have more time than not enough.

My apologies for not being able to fit you in sooner but I'm heavily booked out leading up to the Stonewall Workplace Conference 26th of April and on leave the week after.

If by chance you or other staff are attending the conference though please do say hello, I'm sponsoring the Trans stream this year so responsible for all the work content in that area. It's going to be a great day.

Look forward to meeting and working with you going forward.
