Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for coming back to me and that's no problem at all. Once you have vacancies, we will need to get you registered with the site etc. Please keep hold of this email thread so you have the form ready to complete when the time comes.

Have a lovely week!

Regards,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED],

I hope you're well and thank you for reaching out!

As a member of the Diversity Champions Programme, you receive 5 free job adverts to post on our Proud Employers website (all 5 of NS&I's are available to use). Once these have been used, adverts are charged at the rates advertised on our website. So we can get you set up with login details and access, please completed the attached form and return it to me, along with your company logo in JPEG or PNG format. Once this has been received, I can set it all up for you and send you instructions on how to go about posting your roles on the platform.

The Proud Employers website enables candidates to find job opportunities through the platform, and follow the link to your website and apply directly with you. We are only able to advertise roles for up to 4 weeks, and all adverts will display the logo of the employer (as above).

I'm copying in [REDACTED], NS&I's Client Account Manager here at Stonewall. I know she is looking forward to catching up with you. I've also looped in [REDACTED] who is listed as our main contact at NS&I so she has visibility of this.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon and if you have any further questions, please feel free to give me a shout.

Regards,

[REDACTED]

Hi,

Can you tell me how long can a single job listing remain on your site?

Can employers receive candidates applications directly or via the website?

Can employers add company logo to the job vacancy ?

Thank you for your help

Kind regards,
