Dear [REDACTED]

I'm [REDACTED] and I'll be managing your account going forward.

I manage a team of client account managers and in addition I work with the vast majority of our governmental departments and agencies. I'm still relatively new to Stonewall but I've worked in D&I for over half a decade and prior to that worked in the LGBT sector in a number of roles ranging from community development through to victim support service delivery.

It'd be great to arrange an introduction meeting to discuss National Savings and Investments diversity and inclusion strategy in relation to LGBT people and how Stonewall can support you going forward.

To that end I've attached a Findtime poll with some availability for a 90 minute meeting, we may not need all that time but I'd rather have more time than not enough.

My apologies for not being able to fit you in sooner but I'm heavily booked out leading up to the Stonewall Workplace Conference 26th of April and on leave the week after.

If by chance you or other staff are attending the conference though please do say hello, I'm sponsoring the Trans stream this year so responsible for all the work content in that area. It's going to be a great day.

Look forward to meeting and working with you going forward.
