Louise Oldfield

Dear Ms Oldfield,

On 29 June you wrote to HLF, through the What Do They Know? website to request an internal review of the handling of your FOI request made on 13 May in relation to Dreamland Margate. As required by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I have undertaken a review of the handling of your request.

I have reviewed the correspondence and discussed the process followed and reasons for the redaction and withholding of documents with the relevant officer. After thorough consideration of this matter, I am content that this request was handled correctly. Specifically, I am satisfied that the decision to withhold or redact information was correct, and that the application of exemptions was appropriate.

I know you will find this response disappointing, but this response represents the final view of HLF on this matter. If you continue to believe that we have not properly discharged our responsibilities under the Freedom of Information Act, you may raise your concerns with the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours Sincerely

Carole Souter
