Thank you [REDACTED],

This is informative. [REDACTED] is speaking with London Sport this week about theirs and our engagement with the GLA ,and will be in touch with you and [REDACTED] about how this has been going from a planning perspective. Keeping planning engagement distinct from the other conversations, so more to learn from your experiences to date.

Thank you

Hi,

Not sure if you saw this in Planning's weekly update but the Housing Minister has laid into the London Plan a bit. He obviously is focusing on housing but has indicated there are other matters that are not in conformity with the NPPF. Lets see how this plays out but it could delay the adoption, although the article doesn't suggest it will on the basis that it will be updated immediately after. What that means though, is that we could well have another chance to influence the plan once/if this version is adopted.

Anyway, article is at https://www.planningresource.co.uk/article/1490062/why-secretary-state-intervened-london-plan?bulletin=planning-weekly-edition&utm_medium=EMAIL&utm_campaign=eNews%20Bulletin&utm_source=20180810&utm_content=Planning%20Email%20Edition%20\(25\)::&email_hash=::&email_hash=)
