Environmental Information Regulations 2004

I am pleased to provide some of the information you have requested. I have enclosed copies of the information.

The information blacked out is exempt from disclosure under the exception in Regulation 12(3) of the Environmental Information Regulations (EIRs). Regulation 12(3) prevents us disclosing personal data about individuals, unless it is disclosed in accordance with both regulation 13 and the GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA).

The information is personal data as defined by the GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA). As it is information about someone else we are unable to give this to you; release of this information would constitute a breach of Principle 1 of the DPA. Principle 1 states that personal data shall be processed (used) fairly and lawfully and transparently, in particular, shall not be used unless at least one of the conditions in Article 6 (and when relevant, Article 9) of the GDPR is met; in this case none of those conditions have been met.

The numeric values could lead to the identification of one or more individuals if such data were released.

This response therefore acts as a refusal notice under Regulation 14 of the Environmental Information Regulations.
