Dear ,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 14th April 2020 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

I would like to make a request regarding the optional module choices for the International Development BA.

Please provide the following statistics for the modules listed below:

- 6YYD006: Poverty, Inequality and Social Policy
- 6YYD0014: Multinational Enterprises, Global Value Chains & Local Development
- 6YYD0004: National Development Strategies
- 6YYD0002: Gender, Society and Development
- 6YYD0019: Project Management for International Development

Further, from the Political Economy BA:

- International Trade.

The statistics requested include:

- The average score achieved in the year 2017/18
- The average score achieved in the year 2018/19
- Highest score achieved in the year 2017/18
- Highest score achieved in the year 2018/19

Our response

Please find attached an excel spreadsheet containing the information you have requested. Please note statistics have been provided for both International Trade modules.

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
