

Freedom of Information request – 2049/19

In accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act, the Council is required to inform you that some of the information you have requested has not been provided and has been withheld due to the following exemption under the Act.

Section 40 – Personal Information

It is considered that this exemption under Section 40(2) of the Act applies, namely that some of the information in the table below is personal information and all personal details are protected under the Data Protection Act 2018 legislation. The Council cannot disclose personal information where to do so would breach any of the data protection principles.

In this case, we consider that to release the name of a junior staff members cannot be justified and consent would not be given therefore disclosure would breach the rights of this individual under the Act. Where this exemption has been applied the officer's name has been replaced with their job title.
