Dear Barbara Sunley,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00018

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 4 January, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“What was Jarnail Singh (criminal lawyer) salary for the years 2010 2011 2012 2013”

We can confirm that Post Office holds information within scope from the financial years 2012/13 and 2013/14, but we have decided that the information should be withheld under sections 40(2) and 40(3A) of the FOIA as the information constitutes personal data relating to other persons. These sections exempt personal information from disclosure if that information relates to someone other than the applicant, and if disclosure of that information would breach any of the data protection principles in Article 5(1) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We consider that disclosure of this information is likely to breach the first data protection principle, which provides that personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner. Disclosure would not constitute 'fair' processing of the personal data because the information relates to a junior member of staff who would not reasonably expect their salary to be disclosed in relation to this request for information.

Please note, we do not hold the information you have requested for 2010, 2011 and January-March 2012.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
