Dear James Edward,

I am writing in response to your review request received on 25 August 2016. An internal review has been carried out by someone of a senior grade to the person who dealt with your original request. I am now in a position to respond to you. In your review request you said:

I would like to address your 5th paragraprpggh.

Policy is nothing to do with legislation or law i.e jobseekers act, welfare reform act, HAVE TO CONFORM WITH WRITTEN LAW, REGULATION PASSED THROUGH PARLIAMENT. You state: policy decision was made to move from a jobseeker's Agreement to a jsa claimant commitment, as a means of recording claimant requirements. Therefore, jsa claimants need to agree and sign a jsa claimant commitment.

THE WORD NEED IS NOT A CONDITION OF LAW.

THIS IS NOT TRUE PLEASE WITHDRAW THIS STATEMENT IN THE PUBLIC DOMAIN: YOU'RE GIVING OUT FALSE INFORMATION.

This is just your personal opinion made up policy, policy can be made up by anyone. What law states it's mandatory to change your existing jsa agreement to claimant commitment?

The jsa claimant commitment does not require anything of the claimant over and above that of the existing jobseeker's allowance regulations and in particular, fully conforms to the legal content of a jobseeker's agreement outlined in regulation 31 of the jsa regulations. There for, it is not a condition for jobseekers allowance.

Your statements must comply with law not policy or personal opinion.

I was under the impression that freedom of information is separate from the dwp yet I feel your replies are biased.

SEE CASE: CJSA/5376/2014 – JSAG/CC ARE COVERED BY CONTRACT LAW, IF YOU HAVE A JSSA AGREEMENT IT REMAINS IN FORCE YOU CANNOT BE FORCED TO SIGN A CC

As a result of this review, I am satisfied that the original response was handled properly and that the outcome of your request was correct.

The reasoning behind this decision is as follows. Although a policy decision was made to move from a Jobseeker's Agreement to a Claimant Commitment, a Claimant Commitment is the Jobseeker's Agreement for the purposes of s1 (2) (b) of the Jobseekers Act 1995 and as such it is a legal requirement to enter into such an agreement.

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me quoting the reference number above.

Yours sincerely,
