- H1.7. Each Party at its own cost and expense shall carry out, or use all reasonable endeavours to ensure or will ensure the carrying out of, whatever further actions (including the execution of further documents) the other Party reasonably requires from time to time for the purpose of giving that other Party the full benefit of the provisions of the Contract.

- a) being notified that that change of control has occurred; or
- b) where no notification has been made, the date that the DVLA becomes aware of that change of control.

H4. Waiver

H4.1. The failure of either Party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of the Contract, or the failure of either Party to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy and shall not cause a diminution of the obligations established by the Contract.

H4.2. No waiver shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and it is communicated to the other Party in writing in accordance with clause A9 (Notices).

H4.3. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other or subsequent breach of the Contract.

If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Contract (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Contract shall not be affected.

H7. Remedies Cumulative

H7.1. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Contract, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of any one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.

H8. Entire Agreement

H8.1. This Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in respect of the KADOE Service between the DVLA and the Customer. This Contract supersedes all prior negotiations and contracts between the parties and all representations and undertakings made by one part to another, whether written or oral, except that this clause shall not exclude liability in respect of any Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

- J3.2. The DVLA shall from time to time issue guidance on its principles on suspending the KADOE Service and terminating contracts to supply data using the KADOE Service. The guidance may include guidance concerning: types of Defaults which the DVLA may consider to be Material Breaches; guidance as to specific types of breach that the DVLA will consider to be remediable; how such breaches may be remedied; how long suspension may last; when following any period of suspension the Customer may resume making requests and in relation to which dates of events such requests may be made; and guidance as to which types of breach the DVLA may consider to be irreparable.

J4. Effect of Suspension

- J4.1. If the DVLA suspends the KADOE Service at any time, the Customer shall co-operate with any further investigation, audit or review that the DVLA requires to be carried out in relation to the Data provided to the Customer.
- J4.2. The DVLA may refuse to resume the KADOE Service until the Customer provides assurances that the matter resulting in the suspension has been resolved to the satisfaction of the DVLA, and takes specified actions within a reasonable period set by the DVLA.
- J4.3. The DVLA may require that an inspection is carried out after the KADOE Service is resumed, to check the Customer's compliance with the Contract and Data Protection Legislation.

J4.4. The DVLA reserves the right to recover costs from the Customer for any inspection and shall require the Link Provider to pay the reconnection fee, as set out in SCHEDULE 1 (Fees) before it will resume the KADOE Service.

J5. Insolvency

J5.1. Where the DVLA is notified in writing of any of the circumstances listed in clause H2 (Insolvency), the DVLA may suspend the KADOE Service without further notice and with immediate effect and investigate further whether any of the Customer's directors or any liquidator, receiver, administrative receiver, administrator, or other officer is capable of ensuring that the provisions of this Contract and of Data Protection Legislation are complied with. If the DVLA is not satisfied that any such person shall ensure such compliance, the DVLA may terminate the Contract by written notice with immediate effect.

J6. Other Termination Rights

J6.1. The DVLA may terminate the Contract by written notice with immediate effect if in the reasonable view of the DVLA, during any period of suspension of the KADOE Service the Customer:

J6.4. The DVLA may terminate the Contract by written notice with immediate effect if the Customer is an individual and he has died or is adjudged incapable of managing his affairs within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 (as amended).

J7. Consequences of Suspension and Termination

J7.1. After the KADOE Service has been suspended or the Contract has been terminated or both, the Customer shall continue to comply with its obligations under this Contract and under Data Protection Legislation in relation to the Data which it holds, including as to the proper use of the Data, retention of the Data and secure destruction of the Data.

J7.2. Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract:

- a) termination of the Contract shall be without prejudice to any rights, remedies or obligations accrued under the Contract prior to termination or expiration and nothing in the Contract shall prejudice the right of either Party to recover any amount outstanding at such termination or expiry; and

- b) termination of the Contract shall not affect the continuing rights, remedies or obligations of the DVLA or the Customer under any provision of this Contract which expressly or by implication is intended to come into or to continue in force on or after termination of this Contract.

J8. Supply of Data to Related Persons After Termination

J8.1. If it comes to the attention of the DVLA that the Customer committed any Default in its obligations in relation to the Data prior to termination of the Contract, or if the DVLA has reason to believe that the Customer did not comply with its duties in relation to the Data under Data Protection Legislation, the DVLA shall reserve the right to refuse to provide any further Data by any means to the Customer, its directors or to any other Company with which those directors are associated, for up to 12 months starting on the date of Termination of the Contract.

J8.2. Where DVLA has terminated this Contract, the Customer will no longer be permitted to process or transfer the Data received, prior to termination.

J9. Disruption

J9.2. The DVLA shall not be liable to the Customer for any additional expense or loss incurred by the Customer as a result of such disruption.

- J9.3. The Customer shall immediately inform the DVLA of any actual or potential industrial action, whether such action is taken by their own employees or others, which affects or might affect its ability at any time to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- J9.4. In the event of industrial action by the Customer's Staff, the Customer shall seek the prior written permission of the DVLA to its proposals to continue to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- J9.5. If the Customer's proposals referred to in clause J9.4 are considered insufficient or unacceptable by the DVLA acting reasonably, then the Contract may be terminated with immediate effect by the DVLA by notice in writing.

J10. Force Majeure

- J10.1. Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for any delay in performing, or failure to perform, its obligations under the Contract (other than a payment of money) to the extent that such delay or failure is a result of Force Majeure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to continue to perform its obligations under the Contract for the duration of such Force Majeure. However, if such Force Majeure prevents either Party from performing its material obligations under the Contract for a period in excess of 26 weeks, either Party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing.
- J10.2. Any failure or delay by either Party in performing its obligations under the Contract which results from any failure or delay by an agent, Sub-Contractor or supplier shall be regarded as due to Force Majeure only if that agent, Sub-Contractor or supplier is itself impeded by Force Majeure from complying with an obligation to the Party.
- J10.3. If either Party becomes aware of Force Majeure which gives rise to, or is likely to give rise to, any failure or delay on its part as described in this clause it shall immediately notify the other by the most expeditious method then available and shall inform the other of the period for which it is estimated that such failure or delay shall continue.

J10.4. If the Customer is unable to perform any of its data protection obligations under the Contract as a result of Force Majeure, it shall ensure its data protection obligations are fulfilled by alternative means and shall notify the DVLA immediately giving detailed information as to how it shall ensure that the Data is protected.

PART K

LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

K1. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

K1.1. Subject to the provisions of this Contract regarding Dispute Resolution, the DVLA and the Customer accept the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales and agree that the Contract and all non-contractual obligations and other matters arising from or connected with it are to be governed and construed according to English Law.

K2. Dispute Resolution

K2.1. The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any Dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Contract within 20 Working Days of either Party notifying the other of the Dispute and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the Dispute to those people nominated in ANNEX B and the DVLA Representative and any other staff listed by the DVLA for that purpose.

K2.2. Nothing in this Dispute resolution procedure shall prevent the Parties from seeking from any court of competent jurisdiction an interim order restraining the other Party from doing any act or compelling the other Party to do any act.

K2.3. If the Dispute cannot be resolved by the parties pursuant to clause K2.1, they shall refer it to mediation pursuant to the procedure set out in clause K2.5 unless (a) the DVLA considers that the Dispute is not suitable for resolution by mediation; or (b) the Customer does not agree to mediation.

K2.4. If a Dispute is referred to mediation or arbitration, the obligations of the Parties under the Contract shall not otherwise cease, or be suspended or delayed by the reference of a Dispute to mediation (or arbitration) and the Customer and its Staff shall comply fully with the requirements of the Contract and of Data Protection Legislation at all times.

K2.5. The procedure for mediation and consequential provisions relating to mediation are as follows:

- a) a mediator (the “Mediator”) shall be chosen by agreement between the Parties or, if they are unable to agree upon a Mediator within 10 Working Days after a request by one Party to the other or if the Mediator agreed upon is unable or unwilling to act, either Party shall within 10 Working Days from the date of the proposal to appoint a Mediator or within 10 Working Days of notice to either Party that he is unable or unwilling to act, apply to the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution to appoint a Mediator.
- b) The Parties shall within 10 Working Days of the appointment of the Mediator meet with him in order to agree a programme for the exchange of all relevant information and the structure to be adopted for negotiations to be held. If considered appropriate, the Parties may at any stage seek assistance from the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution or other mediation provider to provide guidance on a suitable procedure.
- c) Unless otherwise agreed, all negotiations connected with the Dispute and any settlement agreement relating to it shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any future proceedings.
- d) If the Parties reach agreement on the resolution of the Dispute, the agreement shall be recorded in writing and shall be binding on the Parties once it is signed by their duly authorised representatives.
- e) Failing agreement, either of the Parties may invite the Mediator to provide a non-binding but informative written opinion. Such an opinion shall be provided on a without prejudice basis and shall not be used in evidence in any proceedings relating to the Contract without the prior written approval of both Parties.

- f) If the Parties fail to reach agreement in the structured negotiations within 60 Working Days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed by the Parties, then any Dispute or difference between them may be referred to the Courts, unless the Dispute is referred to the arbitration procedures set out in clause K2.7

K2.6. Subject to clause K2.2, the Parties shall not institute court proceedings until the procedures set out in clauses K2.1 and K2.3 have been completed save that:

- a) the DVLA may at any time before court proceedings are commenced serve a notice on the Customer requiring the Dispute to be referred to and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause K2.7.
- b) if the Customer intends to commence court proceedings, it shall serve written notice on the DVLA of its intentions and the DVLA shall have 21 Days following receipt of such notice to serve a reply on the Customer requiring the Dispute to be referred to and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause K2.7.
- c) the Customer may request by notice in writing to the DVLA that any Dispute be referred and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause K2.7, to which the DVLA may approve as it sees fit.

K2.7. In the event that any arbitration proceedings are commenced pursuant to clause K2.6:

- a) the arbitration shall be governed by the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 (as amended);
- b) the DVLA shall give a written notice of arbitration to the Customer (the “Arbitration Notice”) stating:

K2.7.b.1. that the Dispute is referred to arbitration; and

K2.7.b.2. providing details of the issues to be resolved;

- c) the London Court of International Arbitration (“LCIA”) procedural rules in force at the date that the Dispute was referred to arbitration in accordance with clause 36.7(b) shall be applied and are deemed to be incorporated by reference to the Contract and the decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the Parties in the absence of any material failure to comply with such rules;
- d) the tribunal shall consist of a sole arbitrator to be agreed by the Parties;
- e) if the Parties fail to agree the appointment of the arbitrator within 10 Days of the Arbitration Notice being issued by the DVLA under clause K2.7 b) or if the person appointed is unable or unwilling to act, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the LCIA;
