Dear Ms Parkes

Thank you for your request for information received on 18 March 2015. I apologise for the delay in replying.

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Our response is as below:

i) Names and job titles of the members of the team attending.

Mike Pocock – Delivery Director – Business Growth and Regeneration
Sandra Roebuck - Programme Director for Strategic and Neighbourhood Investment
David Joyce – Programme Director for Planning and Development Management Carolyn Dwyer – Delivery Director Communities Housing and Environment

ii) Name of the company sponsoring the trip and/or any other funding sources for the trip/the cost.

Canary Wharf Group PLC
McGrove Properties – a joint venture between City Grove and Mclauren
Muse Developments Ltd
St James Group

Each company funded £5,000.

iii) Whether any partners were secured for major investment programmes during the trip, particularly for regeneration of the borough's estates, and if so, for which programmes.

A number of conversations were had with a wide range of developers and investors in relation to opportunities throughout the borough. One of the main purposes of these conversations was to establish interest and understanding. The council must follow procurement guidelines and procedures and in due course will offer opportunities to the market going through due process.
