Dear Ms Harris,

Freedom of Information request – Our ref; FOI|101|14

Thank you for your email to the Attorney General's office in which you made a request under the Freedom of Information Act.

You have requested:

“if the Attorney General's Office ever received legal advice from any company that are located outside the UK in each of the past 5 calender years; The name of company and the location of that company eg; New York, Dublin etc”

I have considered your request and undertaken a reasonable search using relevant search terms and we have not identified any information falling within scope of your request. This should not be taken as an indication that the Law Officers have or have not received advice from companys outside the UK.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to Rowena Collins Rice, Director General, at the above address.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely

James Ross
