Dear Oysterman,

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: 2014-512278

We acknowledge your request received on 4 February 2014 asking us to supply “all data regarding Gay Marriage in Scotland” and your request is being handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002. However, it is not clear from your request precisely what information you are looking for, and therefore to enable us respond to your request we would be grateful if you could provide further details about exactly what information you seek.

In the meantime we enclose a link to the information published on our website in relation to the proposed Marriage and Civil Partnership (Scotland) Bill. This includes the debate at stage 3 which took place on 4th February 2014.

The statutory 20 working day period for reply will begin once we have received sufficient clarification from you to reply to your request.

In replying to this letter it would be helpful if you could quote the FOI reference number above.

Yours sincerely,

Claire Turnbull
Head of Information Governance
