Dear Capt Frantic

Freedom of information request – reference number RFI20090793

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the Act”) dated 27 May 2009 in which you requested information on:

- “any and all plans the BBC may have to lobby parliament, (or any other plans), to introduce compulsory licensing of UK broadband connections to be paid to BBC, Capita, TV Licensing, HM Government or to any other of your associates or any plans you may have to include broadband consumers in your remit for collection of TV licence fees”; and
- “any plans you have to introduce a payment scheme for the pleasure of watching the BBC iPlayer over the internet”.

In response, I can confirm that at present the BBC has no plans to either lobby to introduce compulsory licensing of UK broadband connections or to include broadband consumers in our remit for the collection of the TV licence fee, or to introduce a payment scheme to watch the BBC iPlayer over the internet.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser.
