Dear Mr/Ms Smith - Byrne

Re: Freedom of Information Request Internal review

Thank you for your recent correspondence in which you requested an internal review:

A Senior Officer who was not party to the original decision on whether to release the information has now conducted the internal review. The internal reviewer has reviewed the manner in which the application was dealt with and is empowered to either uphold or overturn the original decision.

Please see attached the outcome of the review.

As a result of the finding of this review I would like to take this opportunity to apologise for any delay to your request. Due to annual leave and training days, I was out of the office and I was unable to provide you with a faster response.

If you are unhappy with the decisions made in relation to your request, you may ask for an If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk)

Yours sincerely,

Miss Jasvinder Jassal
Information Assurance & Data Handling Officer
