Reference: 1090653

Dear Incredible Edible Beeston

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I can confirm that the information requested is held by the University of Nottingham. I have detailed below the information that is being released to you.

In answer to your refined request:

Can you provide the total money, in pounds, received by the university from the following entities, starting with the most important:

Rolls Royce Plc
BAE SYSTEMS (Operations) Ltd
Ministry of Defence

The total amount, in pounds sterling, that the university has received in research funding, industrial consultancy fees, and industrial research fees in the last five financial years. Details should be broken down for each company, year-by-year for the last five financial years.

Information for the last five complete financial years is as follows:

Financial Year	Total value of Awards
	BAE systems	Rolls Royce	MOD
2017	£388,000.00	£6,262,289.82	0
2018	£101,556.00	£1,401,824.00	0
2019	£344,518.61	£2,157,244.94	0
2020	£207,668.32	£1,896,513.96	£1,051,025.04
2021	£147,655.94	£428,176.53	£147,134.07

The University of Nottingham works with companies such as Rolls Royce and BAe Systems to conduct research in for example manufacturing processes, production line innovations and sustainable energy technologies. This offers opportunities for our students to gain valuable industrial experience to enhance and develop their future careers.

Research arrangements with all industrial partners are constructed fully in line with UK government legislation. All academic staff follow rigorous research security, integrity and ethical procedures, and are bound by our own research code of conduct. We do not conduct research into weaponry or weapons systems and have no investments either directly or indirectly in arms companies in line with our ethical investment policy.

Please quote the reference number 1090653 in any future communications.
