Dear Ms Littlejohn,

Your request was received on 12 July 2021 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

I am interested in the subjects studied at A-Level for students who received offers to study medicine on course A100 for the last two years. I understand Chemistry is compulsory for all colleges but could you please for all colleges list out the A level subjects of those that received offers over the last 2 years, please.

Broken down by college and then subject and number of offers with that subject.

So for each college, it would say for example.

Year

Subject - number of offers with that subject

Christs

2019

Biology - 14

Maths - 11

Physics - 4

History - 3

etc (all numbers are for illustration).

This information is attached. Some suppression has been applied to prevent the risk of any individual being identified. In presenting the information in this way, the University is engaging the exemption at section 40(3A)(a) of the Act because the release of the raw data would breach the first data protection principle (the fair, lawful and transparent processing of personal data) as set out in the UK General Data Protection Regulation. This part of section 40 confers absolute exemption under the Act.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF (<https://ico.org.uk/>).

Yours sincerely,
