Dear Mr Oxford,

Thank you for your email of 30 November 2021 in which you submitted the following request:

Please could you provide all the public addresses of Army Reserve Centres in the United Kingdom with what units currently occupy them.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

I can advise that the information you have requested is exempt under Section 21 of the Act because it is reasonably accessible to you by other means. Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) I can advise that there is a 'Reserve Centre Finder' on the British Army website where you are able to search for all Army Reserve Centres across the United Kingdom. This search tool is available at the following link:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/army-reserve/army-reserve-units>.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. Following this, if you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

Army Policy & Secretariat
