8 August 2019

Dear Aaron McCann,

I refer to your e-mail of 6 August 2019 in which you requested the following information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA):

An up to date list of all the current criminal offences as of this request (06/08/19). I understand there has already been a request of this on the 9th of April 2018 but I would like an up to date list.

A list of all variations of common law charges currently available on the Crown Office & Procurator Fiscal Service's (COPFS) electronic case system is attached at Annex A. This list is updated regularly, and is currently accurate as at the last update on 17 June 2019.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, you do have the right to ask us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please e-mail foi@copfs.gov.uk

The review will be undertaken by staff not involved in the original decision making process.

If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, please note that although generally under section 47(1) of FOISA there is a right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner, where the information requested is held by the Lord Advocate as head of the systems of criminal prosecution and investigation of deaths in Scotland, under section 48(c) no application can be made as respects a request for review made to the Lord Advocate. The information you have requested appears to fall into that category, although ultimately it would be for the Commissioner to decide whether that was the case should you refer the matter to him.

In circumstances where section 48(c) does not apply and the Commissioner accepts an appeal, should you subsequently wish to appeal against that decision, there is a right of appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

Yours sincerely

H Hart
Response and Information Unit

A Register of FOI responses is published on the FOI page on the COPFS website:
