Dear Ms Hutton,

Thank you for your request of 14 March 2013 under the Freedom of Information Act (2000). Your exact request was:

*"Under the Information Of Freedom Act
Please could you provide me a list of all gp practices in the UK along with the clinical system they are using"*

I can confirm that the Department of Health holds some information relevant to your request.

Please find enclosed in Appendix A the list of all GP Practices in England along with the clinical system they are using as at 10 March 2013.

Please note that the provision of health services in the UK is a devolved issue. Further details about the administration of health services in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland are available online at the following addresses:

Wales: <http://wales.gov.uk/topics/health/?lang=en>

Scotland: <http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Topics/Health>

Northern Ireland: <http://www.dhsspsni.gov.uk/index.htm>

If you have any queries about this email, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to:

Head of the Freedom of Information Team
Department of Health
