The information we have provided to you is copyrighted to NHS Vale of York CCG and provided to you free of charge for your personal use or for other specific uses permitted in the Copyright Act. If however you wish to use the information we have provided for any commercial purposes including the sale of the information to a third party then, under the Regulations on the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005, you must ask us for permission to do so in respect of each specific piece of such information. If we do grant such permission this may involve a licensing arrangement which may attract a fee. Should you wish to apply for permission for commercial re-use under the Regulations you should write to the Freedom of Information Manager to the address above.

If you have any concerns about the way your request has been handled; the operation of the Publication Schemes, the response received, or the 'exemption' decision, you should, in the first instance, contact me to try to resolve them. If you are not happy with the outcome, you can write to our Accountable Officer at the address above, within 40 days from the date of our response, to make a request for an internal review.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal review, you can then write to the Information Commissioner:

Administration of CCG FOI requests by NHS North Yorkshire CCG

Please note that the administration of FOI requests is carried out by NHS North Yorkshire CCG (NY CCG) on behalf of NHS Vale of York CCG. This means that whilst the information you are provided with is held by the CCG, it has been gathered and prepared by NY CCG on our behalf. I can confirm that the CCG maintains its statutory obligations and responsibilities under the FOI Act, and all responses are agreed by the CCG prior to being issued.

In order for NY CCG to provide this service they need to keep a record of the name and contact details of people making requests under the FOI Act. This information will not be shared beyond the CCG and the FOI Team at NY CCG.

NY CCG also ensures its compliance with the Data Protection Act and details of how they do this can be found on their website at:
