Hi Max

Just a quick email to acknowledge receipt and that I processed your new claim and forwarded this to the finance people in Hemel Hempstead yesterday.

I've just been told they have the information they need and that you will be paid next Weds 28 March.

It looks like your 3 claims will be paid in one amount, so can you check your account for me please next week and if there is still a problem to let me know and I'll follow it up for you.

Have a good weekend

Cheers
