Dear Ms King

I am writing further to your request of 29 July 2024 and your request for information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

Please provide a current organisation chart showing senior and middle managers, and an excel spreadsheet with a list of names, job titles and contact email addresses.

I have attached our current organisational chart, which confirms our Senior Leadership Team and middle leader posts, and the areas they are responsible for.

The names and email addresses of senior and middle managers is considered personal information. The requested information is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 38(1)(b) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, as its disclosure would contravene the Data Protection Act 2018.

Should you need further information you can email us at info@ayrshire.ac.uk

The Privacy and Electronic Information Regulations (PECR) give organisations the right to object to direct marketing; the ICO says that “Businesses and business contacts can object to your direct marketing.” If you are planning to send direct marketing to Ayrshire College then Ayrshire College wishes to object to receiving direct marketing from you and/or your organisation. If you are interested in doing business with Ayrshire College you may find this information helpful: Procurement \(ayrshire.ac.uk\)

Your rights

If you are unhappy with our response to your FOI request, the FOI Act gives you the right to complain. If you wish to complain, the issues you raise will initially be considered by staff not involved in the handling of your original request through an internal review. You will receive a substantive response as soon as possible. We aim to complete internal reviews within 20 working days of receipt.

Complaints or requests for internal review should be submitted no more than 60 working days after we sent a substantive reply to your original request.
