Dear Mr Donald

Request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Thank you for your email received on 4th of November 2014 requesting that the following information be provided to you:

"Dear Glasgow City Council, I'd like to request a copy of a map or a descriptive breakdown of the boundaries of each district within the Glasgow City Council area. To clarify I am NOT requesting a council Ward breakdown, as these are often different to the historic district areas. Instead I'm requesting details of exactly where the council believes the boundaries of districts such as Bellahouston, Dumbreck, Govan, Merchant City, Partick and other areas are within the city. Yours faithfully, Mr D. Donald -----

The council is treating your request as a request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

On inspecting our records, it would appear that Glasgow City Council does not hold the information which you have requested. Neither does anyone else hold it on our behalf as we do not have the City broken down into district boundaries or localities. Any operational boundaries are service specific and used for internal Council purposes. Therefore this information would be exempt under Section 17 of the Act. That is to say that the information is not held by the council. Accordingly we are unable to comply with your request.
