Dear Mr Jones

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your request for information as detailed below, together with our reply.

You asked us:	Our reply:
Can I kindly request the following information- 1. A copy of your MAPA training manual 2. A copy of the course materials used 3. A copy of lesson plans that underpin each module of training 4. Evidence that clearly demonstrates that service users have been involved in the development and delivery of the programme	Under section 43 (2) of the Freedom of the Information Act 2000, this information is exempt from disclosure as the information requested is subject to commercial sensitivity. The training we provide is an accredited model provided (at cost annually) from Crisis Prevention Institute and is copy written as their learning materials. Therefore this is not our information and we are unable to provide this publically.

If you have any further queries, please contact me.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust will have been produced by local officials and will be our copyright. Information you receive which is not subject to our copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party information.

If you are not satisfied with the response to your request you have the right to an internal review. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone who was not responsible for the original case and they will make a decision as to whether your request was managed correctly.

If you would like to request a review please write to:
