Thank you for your request for information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act") dated 25 January 2022.

Under the Act you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

We can confirm that the Trust holds the information you have requested. The information you requested is attached.

It is confirmed that as the information has been provided, this request is now closed.

For future reference, the Trust's publication scheme and details of the services that we provide can be found on our website: www.bhamcommunity.nhs.uk.

Terms and Conditions of Re-Use

Information supplied under the Act is subject to the Trust's copyright unless otherwise indicated. It may be reproduced free of charge in any format or medium (unless expressly indicated to the contrary) provided:

- It is reproduced accurately and not used in a misleading manner;
- The source is identified and the Trust's copyright is acknowledged; and
- It is not used for the principal purpose of advertising or promoting a particular brand, product or service.

This permission does not extend to any material which is the copyright of third parties. You must obtain authorisation to reproduce such material from the copyright holders.

Internal Review and Information Commissioner's Office

If you are not happy with the Trust's response you can request an Internal Review which should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be sent to foi.bchc@nhs.net. The subject heading should include our reference, given at the top of this letter, and include the words "Internal Review Request".

Should you be dissatisfied with the outcome of the Internal Review, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner. A complaints form can be obtained from the Information Commissioner's website: www.ico.gov.uk or contact:

Information Commissioner's Office
