Dear Mr Loader

Further to our acknowledgement of 9th February, we are responding to your information request received on 5th February 2018.

You asked:

Dear Cuckoo Hall Academies Trust,

Which newspapers, magazines, journals & online subscriptions did the organisation procure or receive free during the year 16/17?

Due to the nature of your request we have assumed 'online subscriptions' to mean electronic newspapers, magazines and journals.

Our Trust did not purchase any newspapers, magazines, journals or online subscriptions during either the academic or financial year 16/17.

It is of course very possible that individuals within our academies have elected to receive free email newsletter updates from organisations (such as the Department for Education, Ofsted, Schools Week or TES) or indeed chosen to pay to receive newspapers, magazines or journals themselves, however we are not required to keep records of any subscriptions to which individuals may choose to subscribe; free or otherwise. As such we do not hold this information.

Were we asked to establish this, such a request would be perceived as a manifestly unreasonable in line with Section 14(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 as it would require us contacting in excess of 350 employees and collating their responses; a task in itself would exceed the cost limit of Section 12 of the Act.

We trust our response is useful to you

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your Request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of this response and should be addressed to FOI Reviews c/o Dr. Donald Graham, Chair of Trust Board, Cuckoo Hall Academies Trust, Cuckoo Hall Lane, Edmonton, London N9 8DR.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF. Telephone 0303 123 1113 www.ico.org.uk

Yours sincerely

Neil Murphy
