Dear Mr Hartley,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 26 November 2018 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

Please answer the following question:

1) For each month that interviews took place for 2017 & 18 entry, out of the total number of candidates interviewed how many candidates received an offer. e.g. for November 2017, 150 were interviewed and 100 received an offer, for December 162 were interviewed, 128 received an offer (these are just examples).

Our response

For those who applied to A100 for 2017 and 2018 entry:

Month	2017 Entry		2018 Entry
	Interviewed	Offers	Interviewed	Offers
November	No Interviews		239	229
December	257	168	73	70
January	379	282	324	310
February	94	64	85	84
March	375	220	125	118

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely
