Dear Ms. Meredith,

I am writing to confirm that the University has now completed its search for the information which you requested on 07 February.

You requested the following:

Please send me the following information for each of the academic years 2013-2018.

- How many support service staff have been employed with a mental health remit (e.g. counselling, wellbeing) in each of the last 5 academic years. If a breakdown is not available for mental health staff, please provide a total for the closest possible category.
- Budget for mental health support for each of the last 5 academic years, and where possible a breakdown on how that money is allocated, e.g. staff, marketing, equipment , etc.
- Number of students seeking mental health support in each of the last 5 academic years.
- Average waiting time for mental health support in each of the last 5 academic years.

The information for the questions above is provided on the attached Excel spreadsheet (2116_data.xlsx).

- Any internal reports or reviews relating to mental health provision over the last 5 years.

These are attached as PDF files.

I apologise for the late response.

We believe we have provided you with all the information you requested. However, if you are unhappy with the way the University has handled your request, or with the information you have received, you may ask for an internal review. You can do this by sending a letter to:

Secretary to Council
Brunel University London
UXBRIDGE
UB8 3PH

or by sending an e-mail to foirequests@brunel.ac.uk.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
